

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2
credit

KAWAKAMI, Yuji

1. Course Description

About Seminar I is aimed for upbringing of the professional talented person who can play an active part as a leader in each field in future in the sports industry (wide sense) where further expansion is expected.

At first we understand "the essence of sports. For the purpose of development of the sports culture of our country, we find the overt potential problem of sports present from approach of historic, social. We do brainstorming for a proposal of the sports management and marketing.