1. Course Description

This fall course focuses more on how Trump administration and its policies evolve.

We cover one issue at a time: Trump campaign's alleged collusion with Russia, Trump administration's trade, foreign and security policy, its struggle with China for global order in particular, special characteristics of US-Japan relationship, etc.

We also take a hard look at the prospects of Trump's re-election in 2020 based on domestic political developments during pre-primary election period.

Students should be able to have basic knowledge and their viewpoint about today's America.
