

Application of Information Media

Syllabus Number

LIH-203

Librarian Teachers'
License Program
Elective 2 credit

MIYATA, Yosuke

1. Course Description

In School libraries and school education, it is required to make effective education by utilizing various information media and information technology. Therefore, in this course, with the aim of acquiring the information literacy that a school librarian should have, we will learn about utilizing of information retrieval systems, construction of databases, utilizing the applications, the ethics in modern information environment, and copyright.