

Introduction to Library Service

Syllabus Number

LIH-103

Librarians' Program

Elective 2 credit

MIYATA, Yosuke

1. Course Description

Although libraries are often considered as the place where have many books and lend these, libraries provide cultural and social services. In this class, to understand the thought and structure, we learn about the mission and history of library services. And then we learn about library services such as provision of library material, information services, collaboration, library services for the handicapped, and multi-cultural service. Additionally, we learn about the basics of copyright and communication with users.