

Special Topics in Auditing

IWASAKI, Takehisa Elective 2 credit

1. Course Description

Corporate Audit is an application of financial accounting and it is based on Bookkeeping and Financial Accounting – the learning of bookkeeping and financial accounting. The lecture will give the students explanations up to the advanced level on the meanings, roles, systems of corporate audit, the details of audit standard, and also gives ideas about how corporate audit is conducted in Japan.