

Introduction to Macroeconomics II

Syllabus Number

ECT-104

Elective

2 credit

OCHIAI, Ryo

1. Course Description

This course aims at deepening the understanding of various factors and mechanisms behind macroeconomic phenomenon and the impacts of macroeconomic policies, which could be also useful knowledge in the real world. The students who take this course will study the main components of macro economy, the relationship between saving and investment, financial market and money supply, determination of national income level, labor market, and various tools and their impacts of macroeconomic policies.