

Finance of Japan II

Syllabus Number

MOF-102

Compulsory Elective

2 credit

TSUYUGUCHI, Yosuke

1. Course Description

This course covers the basic theories and knowledge for monetary policy in Japan. Functions of central bank and tools and transmission mechanisms of monetary policy are explained. The functions of foreign exchange markets and international financial systems are also explained in this course. The goals of the course are to obtain basic knowledge for following matters.

(1) Purpose and functions of central banks.

(2) Functions of foreign exchange markets and international financial systems.