

Introduction to Macroeconomics II

Syllabus Number

ECT-104

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

TOMITA, Hideaki

1. Course Description

The aim of Introduction to Macroeconomics course is to learn fundamental theory of macroeconomics which studies various phenomena related to whole economy, for example, inflation, unemployment and economic growth. In autumn course, after the understanding of the need for economic policies, Japan's economic issues such as expanding budget deficit, inflation, deflation and unemployment would be widely discussed.