

Business Capability II

Syllabus Number

MAN-202

Elective

2 credit

KURIKI, Toshio

1. Course Description

This course is to research some companies and organizations of tourism industry, and this time the common research theme is universal tourism which means, in view points of normalization, everyone including aged person, handicapped person, expectant mother and foreign tourists etc, enjoy to take a tour.

We learn the basic concept of barrier free and universal design, and have a discussion concerning the present issues and consider the proposed solutions. Guest speakers who know well the actual states of the details may be invited.