

教育心理学特論

Elective 2 credit

KIHARA, Kumiko

1. Course Description

This course provides graduate students the opportunities to acquire knowledge about the support theories and applications in educational psychology area. The main topics are considered: theory and psychological services on the field of school psychology, consultation and counselling in school, and practices of school counsellor in Japan. Each student will be required to work in teams, participate in constructive discussion, and submit summary reports.