

心理学概論

Syllabus Number

PSY-101

Compulsory 2
credit

SANEYOSHI, Ayako

1. Course Description

This course is designed to provide an overview of major themes in psychology for students majoring in psychology. Topics in this course include some fundamental issues in the field of experimental psychology (sensation, perception, cognition, biological psychology, learning and behavior), developmental psychology, clinical psychology and social psychology. Students are expected to participate actively and acquire a wider range of basic knowledge on psychology.