This course is twice a week which combines Conversation II and Conversation IV.

Continuing from the previous term, we will conduct classes focusing on step-up training of listening skills. We will repeatedly train commonly used vocabulary and simple phrases to naturally acclimate to our ears.

While listening to the content of the teaching materials, we will focus on focusing on listening to the words and phrases of the HSK Chinese Language Level Examination 2 and Chinese Language Proficiency Test Level 4 and acquiring a number of vocabulary that can be written.

It is a class that performs iterative training on 'listening', 'talking', 'reading' and 'writing' while balancing the content of the lesson of Chinese conversation IV and balancing listening and conversation.

Through related DVD images and CD contents, we will acquire everyday expressions of conversation and so on in various ways.
