

International Communication 2-2 : Korean : Syllabus Number FLE-126
Elective 2 credit
LEE, Hyang su

1. Course Description

This course is for those who have completed International Communication I, or who have the same level of language skills, to develop basic Korean grammar and communication skills.

We aim to complete the language skills at the elementary level.

In the preparatory study, it is recommended to listen to the dialogue of the audio material repeatedly and practice speaking.

Students are required to have an interest in Korean culture in general and a positive attitude toward conversation.