

Civil Participation and Volunteer Studies II

Syllabus Number

SWS-303

Elective

2 credit

LEE, Youngsook

1. Course Description

“Volunteer studies” refers to guiding the practice of volunteering. In other words, volunteering needs interaction between practice and study. Based on these ideas, this course will use case studies from Japan and abroad and examine them using various theories. The course will include discussion, group work, watching films, and lectures. This class will also welcome some guest speakers.