1. Course Description

This class will continue in the first half of this year and will improve the language ability of "speaking and listening." We mainly talk about stories that we are interested in or interested in, create a story based on video clips and present it, and give lessons focusing on the practice of speaking Chinese. In addition, they will understand the lines through movies and dramas, improve their listening skills through the writing of Chinese news, and train them to familiarize themselves with Chinese. They also practice putting things together, communicating and explaining in their own words.
