1. Course Description

This class uses the language skills formed by studying abroad, while at the same time improving the language skills of "speech and listen." They mainly talk about episodes that they are interested in and are interested in, create mini-creation plays and mini-storys for presentation, and conduct classes focusing on training in which they construct concepts in Chinese and explain them. They also improve their listening skills by understanding their lines through movies, dramas and other images and writing down Chinese news. They also practice putting things together, communicating and explaining in their own words. The HSK Chinese Language Test Level 5-6 level vocabulary and listening training will be used in classes.
