

Methods of English Activities in Elementary School

Syllabus Number

ESS-314

Elective

2 credit

MEKARU, Mito

1. Course Description

This course aims to gain the knowledge of teaching methods and effective materials of English activities in elementary school. Students will learn the teaching methods and materials in association with the theory of language acquisition. The final goal of this course is to be able to select the proper methods and materials for children according to the purpose of English activities in elementary school. Grades will be decided on the activities, task performance, and the lesson plan.