

Financial Transaction Law

Syllabus Number

CIL-316

Elective

2 credit

KITAMI, Ryoji

1. Course Description

The object of this course is to afford to the students the general perspectives concerning the financial transactions of the banks. The themes to be dealt with are not only traditional banking activities like deposit and lending, but also derivatives, securitization, investment fund and syndicated loans.