

Tourism Resources I

Syllabus Number

GGR-203

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

IIZUKA, Ryo

1. Course Description

This lecture aims to discuss tourism resource which is essential factor for tourism phenomenon from the various view, such as history, culture, society and economy. Especially, the students learn how tourism resources are produced or discovered, and how those tourism resources are consumed by tourists from the case studies. In this Tourism Resources I, the difference and commonness of tourism resources in Japan and those in European countries are focused.