Studies on IT·Ubiquitous Society

1. Course Description

The Ubiquitous Society is coming of age, which means connecting everyone and everything at anytime from anywhere to the Internet.This course is going to overview ubiquitous technology, infrastructure, services, and other hot topics by surveying relevant businesses. Students are required to investigate the related B2B companies/businesses upon the class discussion, and to give presentations about the future of IT Ubiquitous Society.