Multimedia Expression

FUJITA, Yoshikatsu

1. Course Description

This course aims to study basic knowledge how the multimedia contents are stored and managed in the computer, and fundamental programming skills of HTML and CSS. This class will cover (1) introduction for multimedia contents representation (picture and video), (2) how to transfer multimedia contents over the Internet. Students are recommended to have earned credits for "Programming practical."