

スポーツ倫理学

Syllabus Number

SPS-211

Elective

2 credit

SHIMAZAKI, Naoki

1. Course Description

Contemporary sports is "Victory supremacy". Modern times is also the era of science and technology. People are pursuing efficiency and productivity. Sports are exercises of the body. Sports are essentially analog activities. In modern times, the cultural value of pure, educational, healthy sports is becoming thin. The purpose of this lecture is to think "what is the essence of sports" and to recognize the universal activity sports again.