

Multimedia Expression

Syllabus Number

POI-102

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

WATANABE, Kohei

1. Course Description

Multimedia is defined as integrating information based on text, image, sound etc on a computer. The aim of this practical is to understand the principles and to acquire basic skills of digital integration through hands-on experience. Topics to be covered are; data formats and compression, introduction to image processing (photo retouching, manipulation of cartographic information etc), platforms of integration (DTP, HTML, etc).