

Advanced Civil Procedure 2

Elective 2 credit
NAGASHIMA, Koichi

1. Course Description

In this lecture, we will learn the basic theories of civil procedure law. We will consider how we can deal with various conflicts of society. And ask me to be a plaintiff, a defendant, a judge, and acquire the technique of conflict resolution.

In addition to giving lectures on basic parts, ask students to report. I would like to consider many cases with students and deepen their understanding.
