

Basics of Information Technology 2

Syllabus Number

POI-102

Elective

2 credit

CHUBACHI, Naohiro

1. Course Description

The purpose of this course is to understand information technology in modern society. In this course, we will explain the information technology necessary to understand modern society. Students learn about cloud systems and examples of cloud services and they acquire knowledge and ideas on information technology to understand. (Japanese Only)