

Basics of Information Technology 1

Syllabus Number

POI-101

Elective

2 credit

CHUBACHI, Naohiro

1. Course Description

This class discusses knowledge about information technology and examples of utilization of various information technologies. Students learn the basics of information technology and acquire necessary knowledge. Students learn how society uses information technology and information systems are created.(Japanese Only)