International Politics I

Syllabus Number

INR-301 Elective 2 credit

NAKAMURA, Rouran

1. Course Description

- I will explain the following three matters as the basis of international politics.

 1.Meaning of basic terms such as international politics, international society, nationalism, national interests and state.

2.Actors of modern international politics.
3.Realism and liberalism in international politics.
The purpose of this class is to understand the structure of modern international politics.