

Research Methods in Educational Psychology I

Syllabus Number

EDP-104

Elective

2 credit

TAKIGIKU, Kazuyoshi

1. Course Description

In this class we will learn about the research methods used in Educational Psychology. We will explain three major techniques used in Educational Psychology research - experimental method ,observational method and questionnaire method - with reference to actual examples of education-related research.