

Society and Culture in Germany II

Syllabus Number

EUS-104

Compulsory 2
credit

OTA, Koji

1. Course Description

This course introduces students to the history of Germany from the Middle Ages to the Present. It will survey many of the significant political, economic, social, and cultural developments in the German history. Through the course content, students will acquire an increased understanding of the historical events and trends that affect modern Germany.