

International Law: the Maintenance of International Legal Order

Syllabus Number

ILA-302

Elective

2 credit

KITA, Yasuo

1. Course Description

This lecture discusses the ways of maintaining international legal order. The topics are as follows:

(1) State Responsibility [1]: Internationally Wrongful Act of States; (2) State Responsibility [2]: Culpa; (3) State Responsibility [3]: The Implementation of State Responsibility; (4) State Responsibility [4]: Reparation for Injury; (5) State Responsibility [5]: Responsibility and Liability for Environmental Damages; (6) International Protection of Environment; (7) Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes [1]: Diplomatic Methods; (8) Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes [2]: International Adjudication; (9) Armed Control; (10) Principle of Non-Use of Force and its Exceptions [1]: the Establishment of the Non-Use of Force Principle and Collective Security; (11) Principle of Non-Use of Force and its Exception [2]: Right of Self-Defence and Humanitarian Intervention; (12) Law of Armed Conflict; (13) Punishment of War Criminals; (14) Jus post bellum