Elective 2 credit
KANDA, Motoshi・ARAMAKI, Keiko

1. Course Description

We learn the contents, methods, and evaluations of various exchanges and collaborative learning, including direct and indirect exchanges and joint learning between kindergarten, elementary school, junior high School, and the community, as well as individual exchanges that have recently been promoted, such as sub-registered and exchange-register, etc. The present situation and the problem are discussed concretely through the material, the literature, and the school tour.
