

知的障害教育研究

Elective 2 credit

KANDA,
NAKAMURA, Susumu
Motoshi・

1. Course Description

We learn the contents of education while understanding the concept of special support education and the change of educational system for children with intellectual disabilities and historically keeping the relation between the revision of course guidelines and curriculum formation. Also, deepen understanding about changes in the way of thinking and instructional content of autism beginning in the Showa 40 's. Mainly discussing through school tours, reports and presentations, deepen research.