

公務員教養 I

Syllabus Number CAE-213
Elective 2 credit
HARASHIMA, Susumu

1. Course Description

This is a class, the Course of Civil servant basic education I.

The class aimed at the second year students focused on civil servant examinations and it provides students with a more in-depth understanding and learning of civil service examinations. The class mostly offers practical lectures and seminars. It covers preparing of short essay and interview examinations that give students actual practice through technical exercises. It also helps to understanding job contents of civil servant for getting a clear picture of their future.