1. Course Description

This course is aimed at third-year students who have studied Chinese for two years and have studied abroad in China for half a year. The main content of the course is to improve the comprehensive expression ability of Chinese to a new level on the basis of fully reviewing the learned grammar and combining with the practical experience of studying in China for half a year. It is required not only to be able to describe simple things fluently, but also to be able to use complex sentences to discuss the logical relationship of more complex things.
