

Spanish Reading I

Syllabus Number

SPA-204

Compulsory 1 credit

EHARA, Hiromi

1. Course Description

The purpose of this course is to make students get accustomed to read texts with interesting contents necessary to live in Spanish-speaking countries. Students of this class are supposed to study in Spain or in Mexico for the whole second semester in this year. Starting with a textbook with an advanced grammatical level, students will get useful vocabulary and knowledge on the life and travel overseas. Later other helpful texts like newspaper articles, essays, novels, etc. will be given when necessary.