

Special Topics in Tourism IV (ホスピタリティ論) Syllabus Number MAN-227
Elective 2 credit
EBARA, Maki

1. Course Description

Students will develop their understanding of hospitality, and put on the necessary knowledge and attitude to become the person who can show a hospitality. The importance of the hospitality is considered from a key word of three, "oneself", "others" and "society". as it can deepen your understanding through a group work and a discussion at this session
This course is designed to provide students with the skills and knowledge needed to become the person who can show a hospitality.
Online classes.