

Corporate Activities and Human Resources Development

Syllabus Number

CAE-302

Elective

2 credit

IGOU, Yoshinobu

1. Course Description

This course will aim to explore educational function of corporate activities. To comprehend the business world, key concept (for example, company, corporate, contract, transaction, and so on) will be illustrated. Also, the relationship between employer and employee, based on findings from interviews with employment of convenience stores is taken up to understand business structure and matter. This course will incorporate a case study to focus on a wide variety of business world with consideration for students' interest.