

History of Japanese Economy I

Syllabus Number

ECH-201

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

MIYATA, Jun

1. Course Description

This lecture course for college student, we study history of Japanese economy. The coverage period is from a few million years ago to 1853. And what is more, students must make good preparations and review what was learned. The contents of this class will help students to obtain a complete view of historical transition shaped by economic activity of Japanese. We must absorb a wider view for economics, routine economical information, current and future prospective of economic activity of mankind.