経済学演習 II

Compulsory 2 credit

MIYATA, Jun

1. Course Description

In this seminar, graduate students passed Seminar I must study a historical transition shaped by economic activity of Japanese and company of Japan from ancient times to the period of the era of structural adjustment We will discuss the next important issues(①～④). ①We discuss about historical significance through understanding the history of Japanese economy. ②We discuss about historical significance through understanding economic development in Japan. At that time, we must analyze different levels of economic development among countries. ③We discuss about political economic thought of the important Japanese person through understanding the history of Japanese economic thought. ④We discuss about the Japanese company that influenced for the economic development in Japan through understanding history of Japanese economy.