

Laws and Procedures of International Courts and Tribunals II

Syllabus Number

ILA-306

Elective

2 credit

KITA, Yasuo

1. Course Description

This course explicates the law and procedure of the International Court of Justice (ICJ). The content of the course is as follows:

(1) "Nuclear Weapons on Trial"; (2) the ICJ as the Principal Judicial Organ of the United Nations; (3) the Composition of the ICJ; (4) Jurisdiction; (5) Optional Clause System as general; (6) Reservations of the Optional Clause Declarations; (7) Parties; (8) Proceedings; (9) Preliminary Objection; (10) Interim Measures of Protection; (11) Monetary Gold Case Principle and Intervention; (12) Res Judicata, Interpretation, and Revision of Judgment; (13) Advisory Opinion.