

Changes of Society II

Syllabus Number

SOC-308

Elective

2 credit

KAMURA, Shinichi

1. Course Description

This course aim is to learn fluctuations of capitalistic society. We pay attention to relations between the economic change which are social main component factor and social change. The items treated at this course are the Second World War, postwar international organization, development in Germany and Japan, an American decline, the collapse of the Soviet, the Chinese development the post-industrial society, the European integration, or so.