

犯罪心理学特論(司法・犯罪分野に関する理論と支援の展開)

Elective 2 credit

OKAMOTO, Junko

1. Course Description

When one faces the criminal accusation, gets declared as a ward of the court, or fight over the custody of children, the person is in a real crisis. Psychology helps the judiciary handle those cases and helps the people who have to handle those situations. Though the class aims at the preparation for the exam for professional psychologists, it would be useful to study the psychology in judicial fields, as future cases would have legal matters in back of main complaints.
