Curriculum for Early Childhood Care Syllabus Number and Education: Human Relations I

Elective

ESS-318 2 credit

OKADA, Tatsumi

1. Course Description

Early childhood is important because the foundation as a human is formed in this period through interactive relationships with others close to the child. In this course, you will learn about the ability to build up relationships in early childhood and how to support day nurseries and kindergartens.