1. Course Description

The aim of this course is to figure out the linkage between our everyday actions and 'society'. Based on concrete examples, this course helps students understand the basic viewpoints of sociology. The evaluation is based on the following measure: (1) small task in the course (40%) (2) final examination (60%). Only handouts and notebooks are allowed to use during the final examination. This course deals with the everyday situation such as present something to someone, teaching something, asking someone for advice and so on. No textbook is used in this course, and use handout instead.
