

English for Civil Service Examination I	Syllabus Number	CAE-217
	Elective	2 credit
YOSHIDA, Koji

1. Course Description

While the number of students applying for civil servant positions is increasing, many students find it difficult to prepare for the many required exam subjects. In such cases, English language studies tend to be put off. The purpose of this course is to familiarize the students with English examinations for civil servant positions. Students will learn to concentrate and comprehend the gist of a given passage with accuracy and answer questions within the limited time frame.