

Practice in Language Studies IV

Compulsory 2
credit

BRADLEY, Joff

1. Course Description

Depending on the students' research field, we shall spend our time preparing to make a professional presentation at a scholarly conference for graduate students later in the year.

This graduate seminar will be designed around the individual English language proficiency level of the students enrolled. We shall learn how to make professional presentations on academic matters in an academic, scholarly context.