

Introduction to Law II

Syllabus Number FUL-102
Elective 2 credit
NAGASHIMA, Koichi

1. Course Description

This course will learn the general knowledge and thinking of jurisprudence. Jurisprudence is only immediate problem but necessary academy in social life. As this lecture is a elementally course, I introduce a lot of cases to be easy to understand. I'd like to think of good solutions with you by understanding the problem about the law.

We will study the areas of law related to each variety of themes, for example, environmental problem, medical care, and intellectual property.