1. Course Description

The role and function required for nursery schools etc. are expanding from the social movements concerning nursing care and child rearing. The role and function of nursery teachers and other nursery teachers is also very important for children, parents and communities, and expectations for their expertise are rising. Think about the required roles of child care teachers, such as nursery teachers, kindergarten teachers, and nursery teachers, and the child care workers, and learn about the expertise of nurseries who support child rearing and parenting of parents.
