1. Course Description

The aim of this course is to reflect on the students' experiences on "teaching" and "learning" and consider how educational methods and techniques have been developed in Japan and in other regions. And finally we want to think about what kind of teaching methods could facilitate reciprocal learning of teachers and learners and how teachers can guarantee high quality learning of students. Especially in this course many sources from actual school site in Japan and other countries will be utilized to consider various kinds of teaching methods.
