

Life in Contract Society

Syllabus Number

EDU-118

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

IGARASHI, Takuji

1. Course Description

This is an introductory course for students who want to study various things associated with contracts through considering different types of social problems from conceptual viewpoints of laws and contracts. We will also try to make a dynamic dialogue about how we should live in a society for decades to come with awareness of social problems.